3. In the case of failure of the Tribal Council to establish or approve Rules of Civil Procedure or other necessary rules of the Tribal Court, the Law and Justice Committee acting jointly with the Chief Judge, Chief Justice, and any associate judges shall have authority to establish such rules, provided that such rules shall not abridge, enlarge, or modify any substantive right, and shall be consistent with the laws of the Tribe.

4. Rules of Civil Procedure and other rules of the Tribal Court, enacted or amended in the above manner, will be made a part of this Code, but failure to so codify them shall not affect their validity.

Section 1-2-17. Rules of Professional Conduct. The Tribal Court may adopt rules governing the professional conduct of ~~attorneys~~legal counsel and judges of the Tribal Court, including amendments thereto, as follows:

1. The Tribal Court, any personindividual admitted to practice before the Tribal Court, or any member of the Tribe may file a petition with the Tribal Court Administrator to adopt, amend, or repeal any rule of professional conduct. The petition shall state the grounds for the adoption, amendment, or repeal of the rule; include a draft of the proposed new or amended rule; and may be accompanied by supporting documentation. The form and filing of the petition and supporting documentation shall substantially conform, insofar as practicable, to the filing of complaints and other petitions with the Trial Court.

2. After the filing of a petition, the Chief Judge shall review the petition and any supporting documentation and determine whether to reject it for lack of need, merit, or substance. If the Chief Judge denies the petition for lack of need, merit, or substance, the Tribal Court Administrator shall promptly notify the petitioner of the decision of the Chief Judge. The petitioner may appeal such denial to the Court of Appeals.

3. If the Chief Judge does not deny the petition, the Tribal Court Administrator shall prepare a request for comment stating that the Tribal Court invites written comment on the merits of the petition and indicating the place for filing such comments and the expiration date for filing such comments, which shall be no less than sixty (60) days from the date of service and publication of the request. The Tribal Court Administrator shall serve the request for comment and a copy of the petition on all personslegal counsel admitted to practice before the Tribal Court and shall also publish the request for comment in the Tribal newsletter ~~or~~and any other medium readily available to members of the Tribe.

4. Any personlegal counsel admitted to practice before the Tribal Court and any member of the Tribe may file written comments with the Tribal Court on the petition. The form and filing of comments shall substantially conform, insofar as practicable, to the filing of complaints and other petitions with the Tribal Court. The Tribal Court Administrator shall serve all comments filed on the petitioner within ten (10) days of the expiration date for filing comments and the petitioner shall have thirty (30) days from the date of service to file any reply to the comments.

5. At any time prior to the expiration of the time allowed for comment on a petition, the Chief Judge, on ~~his~~the Chief Judge's own motion or at the request of the petitioner or any personindividual admitted to practice before the Tribal Court or any member of the Tribe, may order that a public hearing be held on the petition. The Tribal Court shall determine the method and manner of holding such hearing, which shall be held before the Chief Judge.

6. The Chief Judge shall decide to either grant or deny the petition within thirty (30) days from the expiration of the petitioner's time to reply or any public hearing, whichever is later. The Chief Judge's decision shall be served upon each ~~person~~legal counsel admitted to practice before the Tribal Court and published in the same manner as the original petition. If the Chief Judge grants the petition, the Chief Judge shall designate an effective date for the rule change. If the Chief Judge denies the petition, the petitioner may appeal the denial to the Court of Appeals.

7. Any petition which involves the adoption, repeal, or amendment of rules governing or related to judicial conduct shall also be approved by the Law and Justice Committee prior to being effective.

Section 1-2-18. Tribal Court Funds. Any funds received by the ~~Tribal~~ Court, whether in the form of filing fees, costs, fines, or other fees, shall be deposited into a ~~tribal court~~Tribal Court account which shall be held and maintained by the Tribe. Such funds may be used for Tribal Court development and expenses as directed by the Tribal Council. The funds shall be disbursed in the manner for disbursing all other Tribal funds.

11. Any other interference with the process, proceeding, or dignity of the ~~court,~~ Tribal Court or of a justice or judge of the Tribal Court while ~~in performance of his~~ performing the justice's or judge's official duties.

Section 1-3-2. Civil Consequences for Contempt. ~~The following rules apply to civil contempt:~~

~~1. A civil contempt is prosecuted to preserve, protect, enforce or restore the duly adjudicated rights of a party to a civil action against one under legal obligation to do or refrain from doing something as a result of a judicial decree or order.~~

~~2. Relief in a civil~~

1. The Tribal Court has discretion to determine the appropriate consequences for contempt, but shall endeavor to impose consequences which are just, equitable, discourage further contempts, and compensates where appropriate.

2. Relief in a contempt proceeding may be ~~coercive or compensatory in nature as to the complaining party and may include a fine payable to the court or to the complaining party~~ a sanction for compelling compliance or as a result of conduct, or may be compensatory to a party for losses due to the contemnor's failure to comply or other conduct.

3. In addition to any other consequences for committing contempt, a person who commits contempt as defined in this Section may be subject to a civil fine for each commission of up to five percent (5%) of the person's gross income for the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the contempt.

4. Relief for ~~civil~~ contempt, including a civil fine, shall be in the form of a civil judgment and may be enforced by the ~~court~~ Tribal Court or the ~~complaining party, if relief is payable to the complaining party, through wage garnishment or other~~ compensated party, if and to the extent relief is awarded to the party, by any means available for the enforcement of civil judgments.

Section 1-3-3. Summary Contempt Procedures. ~~The following rules apply to contempt procedures:~~

~~1. A direct contempt is one committed~~

1. The Tribal Court may summarily find a person in contempt if the person commits a contempt in the Tribal Court's presence.

2. The Tribal Court must immediately notify the person of this finding and prepare and file a written order reciting the grounds for the finding, including a statement that the Tribal Court saw or heard the conduct constituting the contempt.

3. The Tribal Court must inform the person of the specific conduct on which the citation is based.

4. The Tribal Court must also provide the person a brief opportunity to present evidence or argument regarding the punishment the Tribal Court will impose.

5. The Tribal Court may not impose consequences during the course of the proceeding at which the contempt occurs, unless prompt consequences is imperative.

Section 1-3-4. Contempt by Notice and Hearing.

1. Except as provided for summary contempt in this Chapter, the Tribal Court may not find a person in contempt without notifying the person of the charge and holding a hearing.

2. The Tribal Court must set the hearing on a date that will allow the person reasonable time to prepare a defense.

3. The notice of hearing must state the hearing's time and place, and the essential facts constituting the charged contempt. The Tribal Court may give the notice orally in open court in the ~~presence of the court or so near thereto as to be disruptive of the court proceedings, and such may be adjudged and punished summarily.~~

~~2. All other contempts shall be determined by a hearing at which the person accused of contempt is given notice and an opportunity to be heard.~~

~~person charged or by an order to show cause.~~

4. The person charged with contempt has the right to subpoena witnesses for the hearing in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 1-3-5. Disqualification of Judge.

1. Unless prompt consequences are imperative, a citation for contempt must be transferred to another judge of the Tribal Court if:

a. The conduct involves disrespect or a personal attack on the citing judge's character; or

b. If the citing judge's conduct is so integrated with the contempt that the citing judge contributed to or was otherwise involved in it.

2. In cases where a citation for contempt is not required, a judge who issues a citation for contempt may recuse themselves and transfer the citation to another judge of the Tribal Court.

3. Should a citation for contempt be transferred:

a. The judge who issued the citation may participate in the adjudication of the citation as a party; and

b. Any prior adjudication of responsibility is void and the judge to whom the citation is transferred must hold a hearing to determine the person's responsibility and punishment.

Section 1-3-6. Appeal.

1. An adjudication of contempt under this Chapter, including the imposition of a civil fine, is a final order and subject to appeal in accordance with the laws of the Tribe governing civil appeals.

2. A judge who issues a citation of appeal and transfers the matter to another judge may appeal the adjudication as a party to the adjudication.

Section 1-3-7. Unsworn Declarations.

1. Except as otherwise provided in this Section or elsewhere in the laws of the Tribe, whenever, under any law of the Tribe or under any rule, regulation, order, or requirement made pursuant to the laws of the Tribe, any matter is required or permitted to be supported, evidenced, established, or proved by the sworn written statement, declaration, verification, certificate, oath, affirmation, or affidavit of the person making the same, such matter may, with like force and effect, be supported, evidenced, established, or proved by the unsworn written statement, declaration, verification, or certificate of such person which recites that it is true under penalty of perjury, and dated, in substantially the following form:

I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on (date).

c. A materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation to a Tribal government entity, knowing or believing it to be false, fictitious, or fraudulent; or

d. A false writing or document knowing the same to contain any materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or entry or forged matter.

2. This Section is applicable whether the declaration, certificate, verification, or statement is made or subscribed within or without the territory of the Tribe.

3. By submitting any declaration, certificate, verification, or statement, whether sworn or unsworn, to the Tribe or in any proceeding or matter within the jurisdiction of the Tribe, a person submits to the jurisdiction of the Tribe for any issue or matter related to the declaration, certificate, verification, or statement, including enforcement of this Section.

4. No person shall be found to have committed perjury where proof of falsity rests solely upon contradiction by testimony of a single person other than the person accused of perjury. Proof of falsity may be established by direct or indirect evidence.

5. A person who commits perjury with respect to the receipt of any benefit from the Tribe forfeits such benefit and shall return any benefit received therefrom unless otherwise provided under applicable law.

6. In addition to any other consequences for committing perjury, a person who commits perjury as defined in this Section shall be subject to a civil fine for each commission of up to the greater of:

a. Five percent (5%) of the person's gross income for the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the perjury; or

b. One and one-half (1-1/2) times the value or amount of benefit the person obtained from the commission of perjury.

7. A civil fine for perjury may be imposed by the Tribal government entity before whom the perjury was committed and thereafter enforced and collected through a civil cause of action brought by such Tribal government entity on behalf of the Tribe in the Tribal Court or through any other method of imposing or enforcing civil fines under the laws of the Tribe.

CHAPTER 4 JURISDICTION

Section 1-4-1. Territorial Jurisdiction. The general jurisdiction of the Tribal Court shall be the territory of the Tribe. As to lands ceded to the United States, or to which the Tribe retains right, title, or interest, the Tribal Court retains original, exclusive jurisdiction over members of the Tribe engaged in hunting, fishing, and gathering for subsistence, ceremonial, and religious purposes.

Section 1-4-2. Personal Jurisdiction.

1. Except for limitations, restrictions, or exceptions imposed by or under the authority of ~~the Constitution or~~valid applicable laws of the United States or by express provision elsewhere in the laws of the Tribe, the Trial Court shall have personal jurisdiction over:

a. Any person residing, located,  or present within the territory of the Tribe for any civil cause of action;

Section 1-5-7. Oath of Legal Counsel. Upon admission to practice as provided herein, legal counsel shall take the following oath, either verbally before the Tribal Court or, if admitted without personally appearing, by subscribing ~~his~~the legal counsel's signature to such oath:

I, (state your name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support ~~and defend~~ the Constitution ~~and By-Laws,~~ Law and Order Code, and all ordinances, laws, and resolutions ~~and ordinances~~ of the Ponca Tribe; ~~that I will maintain the respect due the Courts and Judicial~~ of Nebraska;

As legal counsel, I will exercise my functions with dignity, conscience, independence, integrity, and humanity;

I will treat the courts and judicial officers of the Ponca Tribe; ~~that~~ of Nebraska with respect;

I will not counsel or maintain ~~any suit or proceedings which shall appear~~ an action, proceeding, or defense that appears to me to be unjust, ~~nor any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land; that I will employ for such purposes of maintaining the cause confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor, and will~~ or that lacks a reasonable basis in fact or law;

I will be honest in my dealings with others and never seek to mislead ~~the~~ any judge or jury by any ~~artifice or false statement or fact or law; that I will maintain the confidences and preserve inviolate the secrets of my~~

~~client, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business except from him or with his~~judicial officer or make false or misleading statements of fact or law;

I will fulfill my duty of confidentiality to my client; I will not accept compensation for representing my client from anyone other than my client without my client's knowledge and approval;~~that~~

I will avoid engaging in unprofessional conduct; I will ~~abstain from all offensive personality and~~not advance ~~no~~any fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required ~~in justice by the cause with which I am associated; that I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed or delay any man's cause for lucre or malice~~by my duties to my client or the tribunal;

I will not utilize litigation or any other course of conduct to harass the opposing party;

I will at all times faithfully and diligently adhere to the rules of professional conduct of the Ponca Tribal Court;

I will not engage in conduct that I know or should know is harassment or discrimination on the basis of race, sex, religion, national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, or socioeconomic status in conduct related to the practice of law in the Ponca Tribe of Nebraska;

I will remember that, in addition to commitment to my client's cause, my responsibilities as legal counsel include a devotion to the good of the Ponca Tribe of Nebraska, the community, and the public.

Section 1-5-8. Duties and Standards of Conduct. All legal counsel shall conform their conduct to the oath prescribed herein and the Rules of Professional Conduct as adopted by the American Bar Association or other rules of professional conduct adopted by the Tribal Court pursuant to the laws of the Tribe. In addition, all legal counsel shall be duty bound to give immediate written notice to the Tribal Court of any formal discipline imposed upon ~~him~~such legal counsel, including dates and terms thereof, by any court, jurisdiction, or administrative tribunal.

Section 1-5-9. ~~Disbarment and~~ Discipline.

1. Whenever it is made to appear to the Chief Judge that any legal counsel admitted to practice before the Tribal Court has been disbarred or suspended from practice in any jurisdiction where such legal counsel is admitted to practice, such legal counsel shall immediately be given notice at ~~his~~such legal counsel's last known address that ~~he~~such legal counsel shall be likewise disbarred or suspended from practice before the Tribal Court ~~for an indefinite period~~ unless ~~he~~such legal counsel files a written reply within fourteen (14) business days and shows good cause why such order should not be made. Legal counsel may appeal the Chief Judge's decision to the Court of Appeals.

2. Any judge who finds legal counsel admitted to practice before the Tribal Court to be in contempt of ~~Court~~court may, in addition to any other sanction imposed, order the legal counsel to appear within thirty (30) days or the next scheduled court date and show cause why ~~he~~the legal counsel should not be ~~suspended from practicing before the Tribal Court~~disciplined under this Section.

3. The Chief Judge may, upon receiving a written complaint, signed under oath or affirmation, which indicates that legal counsel admitted to practice before the Tribal Court has acted in an unethical or otherwise improper manner while functioning as legal counsel, order such legal counsel to appear and defend ~~himself~~themselves at a hearing, to hear all evidence relevant to the matter, and may order the ~~suspension~~discipline of such legal counsel if such appears reasonably necessary or appropriate. ## ~~CHAPTER 8~~

~~WEAPONS ON PONCA TRIBE OF NEBRASKA PROPERTY~~

~~Section 1-8-1. Purpose.~~ The purpose of this chapter is to ensure the safety of tribal members and all others on the lands and finds the Tribal official acted without authority or outside of the scope of their authority with respect to any matter or issue subject of such claim, dispute, or cause of action.

6. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to limit or prevent:

a. The imposition of any discipline or civil fine on a Tribal official in accordance with the laws of the Tribe;

b. The authority of the Law and Justice Committee with respect to judges and justices of the Tribe, including their conduct, as provided in this Title; or

c. The recall or removal of any Tribal official in accordance with the laws of the Tribe.

7. No Tribal official may claim sovereign immunity as a defense or bar to any claim, dispute, or cause of action brought or taken by the Tribe.

Section 1-7-4. Waivers of Immunity. Notwithstanding any other provision of law of any jurisdiction or the terms of any contract, agreement, instrument, or document, except for waivers of sovereign immunity expressly set forth in this Code or granted by Tribal business entities in accordance with the laws of the Tribe applicable to such Tribal business entities:

1. A waiver of sovereign immunity of the Tribe, including with respect to any contract, agreement, or instrument or its enforcement, shall not be valid or enforceable against the Tribe in any jurisdiction unless it complies with all of the following:

a. The waiver is explicitly expressed in a writing with language specifically referring to a waiver of sovereign immunity and, if related to a contract, agreement, or instrument or its enforcement, written with such language in the contract, agreement, or instrument;

b. If related to a contract, agreement, or instrument or its enforcement, the Tribe is a full party to the contract, agreement, or instrument and may enforce it to the same extent as any person in favor of whom the waiver is granted;

c. If related to or contained in a contract or agreement:

i. The contract or agreement, including a replacement of or amendment to a contract or agreement, was awarded by bid, competitive proposal, or other manner providing full and open competition; and

ii. Unless the Tribe finds good cause to allow a later request, the request for the waiver was included in any bid, proposal, or offer provided to the Tribe and not precluded by the terms of the request for bids, proposals, or offers;

d. The waiver is not general, but is specific and limited as to:

i. The specific person for whose benefit the waiver is granted;

ii. The duration of the waiver, which shall not exceed and, if omitted, shall be deemed, the applicable statute of limitations in this Title for the particular claim against the Tribe;

iii. ~~The~~ property of the Tribe ~~by categorically excluding the possession of firearms of any kind on all lands and property and in all buildings and vehicles~~which may be subject to execution to satisfy any judgment or award which may be entered;

iv. The requirements and procedures for initiating dispute resolution, if applicable, and, if the waiver includes consent to resolve disputes in a court other than the Tribal Court, the specific court in which an action may be brought; and

v. If any law other than the laws of the Tribe will be applied in any claim, dispute, or cause of action pursuant to the waiver, what law will be applied, provided the application of such law shall not permit or allow any violation or abrogation of the laws of the Tribe applicable to the Tribe, including this Chapter;

e. The waiver explicitly states the specific transaction and claims, disputes, or classes of disputes subject to the waiver or, if related to a contract, agreement, or instrument or its enforcement, is strictly limited to disputes directly arising under the contract, agreement, or instrument;

f. The waiver is limited to a maximum dollar amount or other specific, limited non-monetary relief and, if related to a contract, agreement, or instrument or its enforcement, a specified amount or, if omitted, shall be deemed, not to exceed the total dollar amount to be paid or received by the Tribe under the contract, agreement, or instrument;

g. If the waiver permits monetary relief, it is limited to direct damages and excludes any monetary relief for loss of profit, anticipated profit, undelivered property or goods, or unperformed services;

h. The waiver does not permit any third parties or others for whom the waiver is not granted to bring any claim, dispute, or cause of action against the Tribe or to join, intervene, or otherwise become a party to a claim, dispute, or cause of action against or involving the Tribe without the express written agreement of the Tribe;

i. The waiver does not permit any relief, monetary or otherwise, prohibited under the laws of the Tribe or not permitted against the Tribe, including costs and legal counsel fees of an opposing party;

j. The waiver does not permit any relief, monetary or otherwise, prohibited under the laws of the Tribe or not permitted against the Tribe, including costs and legal counsel fees of an opposing party;

k. If the waiver is contained in or related to a contract, agreement, or instrument for or on behalf of a particular Tribal government entity, the waiver only applies to that particular Tribal government entity even if the Tribe is the named party to the contract, agreement, or instrument;

1. The waiver and any contract, agreement, or instrument containing or related to the waiver does not seek or purport to escape, deny, or waive the applicability of any law of the Tribe or violate any law of the Tribe, including the requirement to exhaust any contract claim process provided under the laws of the Tribe and the requirement to register as a foreign business entity under the laws of the Tribe;

m. The waiver and any contract, agreement, or instrument containing or subject to the waiver has been reviewed and approved by legal counsel representing the Tribe prior to approval of the waiver and execution of any related contract, agreement, or instrument;

n. The Tribal Council adopts a resolution for the specific purpose of approving and granting the waiver, which must:

i. State the text of the waiver, including all requirements of this Section, or identify the specific written contract, agreement, or instrument containing the waiver and all requirements of this Section;

ii. Expressly affirm and agree to the waiver by explicit language referring to such; and

iii. Be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the full Tribal Council, excluding any vacant positions; and

o. The waiver must comply with all other requirements under applicable law;

2. If a waiver of sovereign immunity is granted for a particular Tribal government entity, including with respect to a contract, agreement, or instrument or its enforcement:

a. Any such waiver shall in no manner or way extend to the Tribe as a whole, any other Tribal government entity, or any Tribal business entity or be deemed a waiver of any of the rights, privileges, or immunities of the Tribe as a whole, any other Tribal government entity, or any Tribal business entity;

b. Any recovery against the Tribal government entity to which the waiver applies shall be limited to the assets of that Tribal government entity or such portion of the assets of that Tribal government entity authorized in the waiver;

c. Neither the Tribe as a whole nor any other Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity shall be liable for the payment or performance of any of the obligations of the Tribal government entity to which the waiver applies; and

d. No recourse shall be had or allowed against any assets or revenues of the Tribe as a whole, another Tribal government entity, or Tribal business entity in order to satisfy the obligations of the Tribal government entity to which the waiver applies, including assets of the Tribe leased, loaned, or otherwise assigned without transfer of title to such Tribal government entity for its use;

3. A waiver of immunity may be granted only when necessary to secure a substantial advantage or benefit to the Tribe;

4. Any waiver of immunity shall be narrowly construed in favor of the preservation of immunity and strictly limited to its terms, including with respect to the issues and disputes subject to the waiver, the courts which may hear any matter related to or subject to the waiver, the methods of dispute resolution subject to the waiver, and the parties who may claim benefit or use of the waiver;

5. No waiver of immunity shall be effective unless and until the person claiming the waiver has exhausted any contract claim process provided under the laws of the Tribe as well as any pre-dispute resolution processes required by the waiver or the contract, agreement, or instruments subject of the waiver;

6. No waiver of immunity shall extend to:

a. Any claim, dispute, or cause of action or matter which is regulatory or any other law enforcement action or matter, including the imposition of a civil fine under this Code; or

b. Any claim, dispute, or cause of action or review of a claim, dispute, or cause of action where applicable law provides another exclusive or specific remedy or procedure for the claim, dispute, or cause of action;

7. No waiver of immunity shall permit any person to join; intervene; interplead; counterclaim; cross-claim; or otherwise claim, proceed against, or force the Tribe to participate in any claim, dispute, or cause of action unless the waiver or consent was granted specifically in favor of such person;

8. The authority to waive the immunity of the Tribe or to consent to any suit shall not and can not be delegated by the Tribal Council to any Tribal government entity or Tribal official;

9. Except for the Tribal Council by act taken in accordance with this Chapter and other applicable law of the Tribe, no Tribal government entity, Tribal official, or Tribal business entity has the authority to waive the immunity of the Tribe or consent to any suit on behalf of the Tribe itself or any Tribal government entity;

10. No waiver of immunity is valid or enforceable if contained in, claimed to be contained in, or alleged to exist by operation of any term, including an arbitration provision, in a contract, agreement, or instrument, or portion or provision therein or amendment thereto, drafted with non-negotiable terms and conditions or otherwise whereby the Tribe is or was required to adhere to the contract, agreement, instrument, or terms without negotiation, renegotiation, change, or amendment;

11. No term, provision, or language in a contract, agreement, instrument, resolution, or other document asserting, declaring, or agreeing that a waiver of immunity is irrevocable, valid, or enforceable shall waive, abrogate, or supersede the provisions of this Section or any other law of the Tribe, and shall be construed to mean only that the waiver is irrevocable, valid, or enforceable subject to and only to the extent consistent with this Section and any other laws of the Tribe;

12. A waiver of immunity made or granted in violation of this Section shall be against public policy, illegal, made without legal capacity or authority, and void, provided that if a waiver or consent made in violation of this Section cannot be deemed void or unenforceable for any reason:

a. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its terms, the waiver shall be revocable at law by the Tribe; or

b. If the waiver cannot be revoked, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in its terms, the waiver shall be construed in accordance with the following:

i. The waiver and all doubts and ambiguities therein shall be strictly construed against the other party and solely in favor of and to the benefit of the Tribe and the maximum retention of its immunity; and

ii. The waiver shall only be effective in the Tribal Court and any provision in the waiver purporting to permit dispute resolution or enforcement in, or to be a consent to jurisdiction to, any other court shall be unenforceable and severed from the contract, agreement, or instrument or construed as revocable by the Tribe or, if not revocable, solely an agreement to permit dispute resolution and enforcement in and/or consent to jurisdiction of the Tribal Court.

Section 1-7-5. Exempt Property.

1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law of any jurisdiction or the terms of any contract, agreement, instrument, or document or waiver of sovereign immunity, the following property and funds of the Tribe shall be exempt from garnishment or execution and may not be pledged or recovered against for any contract or agreement with the Tribe, other instrument involving the Tribe, or claim against the Tribe:

a. Any property held in trust for the Tribe, including any improvements thereon or rights or privileges of any kind thereto;

b. Any intellectual property of the Tribe, including trademarks, copyrights, and cultural patrimony;

c. Any real property of the Tribe, including improvements thereon, or rights or privileges of any kind thereto, provided that such real property may be pledged for a proper mortgage of such property to secure a loan or other indebtedness of the Tribe;

d. Any personal or other tangible or intangible property of the Tribe, including rights or privileges of any kind thereto, provided that such property may be pledged or encumbered for the purpose of securing a loan or other indebtedness of the Tribe;

e. Any funds received from a contract with or grant from a foreign jurisdiction other than the portion of such funds properly allocated, budgeted, and intended to be used for the subject of the claim, including a contract, agreement, or instrument related thereto; and

f. Any other exempt property under the laws of the Tribe.

2. Unless specific property or funds of the Tribe are expressly pledged by the Tribe in a contract, agreement, or instrument, a person may only recover payment or monies from the Tribe from:

a. The specific source of funding for the contract, agreement, instrument, or program involved; or

b. If there is no specific source of funding for the contract, agreement, instrument, or program, general Tribal funds which have not been allocated or dedicated to a specific contract, agreement, instrument, or program.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law of any jurisdiction or the terms of any contract, agreement, instrument, or document or waiver of sovereign immunity, except for pledges for proper mortgages as permitted in this Section, no lien or other encumbrance may be filed, claimed, or enforced on or against any real property of the Tribe or held in trust for the Tribe, including improvements thereon and rights or privileges of any kind thereto.

4. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as preventing or prohibiting the Tribe from:

a. Leasing or licensing property of the Tribe, other than funds, in accordance with applicable law and the normal operations of the Tribe;

b. Assigning property of the Tribe, other than funds, to members of the Tribe or to Tribal government entities or Tribal business entities in accordance with the laws of the Tribe; or

c. Properly appropriating and expending funds of the Tribe in accordance with applicable law and budgets approved by the Tribal Council.

CHAPTER 8 TRIBAL CONTRACTS

Section 1-8-1. Definitions. UnlessIn addition to the definitions set forth in Chapter 1 of this Title, unless the context requires otherwise, as used or another definition is provided for a particular section, in this Chapter:

1. "Authorized Individual" "Adhesion contract" means any contract or any provision therein or amendment thereto drafted with non-negotiable terms and conditions or otherwise whereby any party must adhere to the original terms without negotiation, renegotiation, or amendment, including where a party refuses to allow any changes, modifications, or amendments requested by the other party or does not provide the other party the opportunity to request changes, modifications, or amendments.

2. "Contract" means a contract, agreement, or other instrument, whether express or implied, written or oral, and includes a contract that has been extended or renewed by an oral or implied agreement.

3. "Deliverables" means all of the goods, products, services, work, work product, items, materials, and property to be created, developed, produced, delivered, performed, or provided by or on behalf of, or made available through, a contractor or any agent, employee, or subcontractor of a contractor in connection with a contract.

4. "Dispute" means a claim, dispute, or controversy and includes any question arising between parties to a contract whether the question is one of law or fact or both.

5. "Dispute resolution" means negotiation, mediation, arbitration, court or other judicial proceeding, civil action, or any other action or method to resolve a dispute and includes any proceeding related to or part of dispute resolution, including enforcement of any award or judgment and compelling of any dispute resolution.

6. "Drafting party" means the person that drafted a contract and includes any third party relying upon or otherwise subject to the contract.

Section 1-8-2. Purpose, Applicability, and Scope.

1. The underlying purposes and policies of this Chapter are:

a. To simplify, clarify, and modernize the law governing contracting by the Tribe;

b. To provide for increased public confidence in the procedures followed in Tribal contracting;

c. To ensure the fair and equitable treatment of all persons who contract with the Tribe; and

d. To provide increased economy and expediency in Tribal contracting activities.

2. The provisions of this Chapter apply, without exception, to:

a. Any business, transaction, contract, or other consensual relationship with the Tribe; and

b. Any person who conducts business with; transacts with; or enters or has entered into a contract or other consensual relationship with the Tribe, either in person or by an agent or representative, for purposes of such business, transaction, contract, or consensual relationship.

3. Any person to whom this Chapter applies is responsible for knowing and charged with knowledge of the provisions of this Chapter and any other provisions of this Code which may apply to or govern the person and any business, transaction, contract, or other consensual relationship with the Tribe. Lack of knowledge of any provision of this Chapter or this Code shall not excuse compliance with the same under any circumstances.

4. Any person to whom this Chapter applies shall be deemed to have consented to be bound by the terms of this Chapter for any business, transaction, contract, or consensual relationship with the Tribe or matter related thereto, even if such person claims or purports to reject or refuse to be bound thereby expressly, by implication, or otherwise, provided that a refusal to be bound by the terms of this Chapter shall make such person ineligible for contracting with the Tribe.

5. All terms and conditions of a contract with the Tribe are entered into specifically subject to the laws, sovereignty, and sovereign immunity of the Tribe, including any clauses, terms, conditions, or contracts of third parties incorporated into such contract or concerning or related to third party use, licenses, warranties, limitations of liability, governing law and venue, indemnity, liability, remedy, or other similar provisions.

6. The provisions of this Chapter may be incorporated into any contract with the Tribe by reference and thereby supersede and control over any contrary provisions, but are incorporated into and supersede and control any contrary provisions in any contract with the Tribe as a matter of law as though expressly written therein, even if not specifically stated or referenced, and may not be waived, superseded, or abrogated by the terms of the contract except where expressly permitted in this Chapter, provided that where a provision of this Chapter may be construed to supplement a provision in a contract, the provision will remain in effect and the supplementary provision of this Chapter will be considered as added thereto. Without limiting the foregoing, the Tribe shall make reasonable efforts to ensure notice of the existence of this Chapter is provided in the process of procuring property, goods, and services.

7. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to and, to the extent necessary, be deemed an amendment to any contract still in effect and entered into prior to the enactment of this Chapter, provided that if the application of a particular provision of this Chapter which is contrary to a provision in an existing contract would violate the Constitution or constitute a material breach of such contract on the part of the Tribe, such particular provision will not apply to that contract.

8. Except where otherwise provided, the provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to employment with the Tribe.

Section 1-8-3. Principles of Tribal Contracts.

1. The Tribe is a sovereign and its authority to contract is therefore subject to limitations and requirements in the laws of the Tribe, including this Chapter. Contracting with the Tribe is a governmental and not a commercial transaction.

2. Without exception, there is no right or entitlement to contract with the Tribe or to do business with the Tribe or in the territory of the Tribe. The benefit of contracting with the Tribe or doing business with the Tribe or in the territory of the Tribe requires acknowledging and accepting the concomitant duties, obligations, responsibilities, and conditions of complying with the laws of the Tribe and being subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Tribe. The provisions of this Chapter and all other laws of the Tribe are conditions for the benefit of contracting with the Tribe and doing business with the Tribe and in the territory of the Tribe.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter allowing for a choice of tribunal for disputes, a party to a contract with the Tribe is subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Tribe for all matters arising under or relating to the contract or its performance and that jurisdiction and authority cannot be waived or abrogated.

4. The jurisdiction and territory of the Tribe is not the jurisdiction and territory of any foreign jurisdiction.

5. The customary and standard practices of business are the customs and standards of the Tribe, including as reflected in this Chapter. Customary or standard practices of businesses, including with respect to contract terms, in any foreign jurisdiction do not apply as customs and practices within the territory of the Tribe.

6. Except for contracts with a foreign government and subject to the provisions of this Chapter allowing for a choice of law provision for interpretation and enforcement, all contracts with the Tribe shall be governed by the laws of the Tribe notwithstanding any term or condition to the contrary.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter allowing for a choice of tribunal, any action arising under or related to a contract with the Tribe or to enforce the provisions of a contract with the Tribe must be brought in the Tribal Court as a matter of the laws of the Tribe.

8. A natural person or individual, even acting in official capacity, signing a contract with the Tribe on behalf of the Tribe does not have the authority to waive the sovereignty of the Tribe, including its immunities, or any law of the Tribe or its applicability or enforcement.

9. By entering into a contract with the Tribe, every party to the contract consents to, agrees to, acknowledges, and understands the principles set forth in this Section.

Section 1-8-4. General Requirements of Tribal Contracts.

1. Every contract with the Tribe includes an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, including the obligation of each party to implement the contract as intended, not use any means to undercut the purpose of the transaction, and not falsely disparage, malign, or discredit any other party. Violating or not performing in accordance with the covenant of good faith and fair dealing is a material breach of the contract.

2. All parties to a contract with the Tribe must comply with and agree to comply with the laws of the Tribe as well as all other applicable laws.

3. No contract with the Tribe or any subcontract thereof may provide for payment to the contractor or subcontractor based on a percentage rate which is applied to the actual performance costs of the contractor or subcontractor or where the contractor's or subcontractor's payment otherwise increases commensurately with increased performance costs of the contractor, subcontractor, or any third party, including another contract to which the contractor or subcontractor is not a party. This subsection will not be deemed violated where the contractor's or subcontractor's payment is calculated based on a percentage of performance costs, but is a fixed or maximum amount set at the time of contracting and not subject to increase based on any increase in actual performance costs.

4. Every contract with the Tribe for property, goods, or services must provide for a fixed date, time, or event when the contract will terminate, expire, or end unless the contract provides that the Tribe can terminate the contract at will, without cause, upon notice which is not more than ninety (90) days. This subsection does not apply to contracts which do not permit or require the payment of monies to be made by the Tribe or where the Tribe's obligation to make any payment is conditioned solely upon the Tribe's affirmative use or engagement of the contractor at the option or request of the Tribe in its sole discretion. Nothing in this subsection prevents the extension or renewal of a contract expressly in a writing duly approved and executed by the Tribe, provided such extension or renewal complies with this subsection.

5. The Tribe may agree to be a guarantor of a contract or the obligations of a Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity upon the express written agreement of the Tribe and approval of the Tribal Council. No contract with the Tribe may provide for or require any Tribal official to be a guarantor of the Tribe or the contract in their official capacity, individual capacity, or any other manner and any provision of a contract with the Tribe which provides for a Tribal official or signatory of the Tribe to guarantee the contract in any manner whatsoever shall be against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

6. A contractor of the Tribe shall, at the contractor's sole cost and expense, procure and maintain in full force and effect throughout the term of the contract with the Tribe such insurance coverage, self-insurance, or equivalent which is the greatest of that:

a. Required by the laws of the Tribe and other applicable law;

b. Reasonably appropriate to the property or goods provided or services performed under the contract; or

c. Customary for contractors providing similar property, goods, or services.

7. Any contractor of the Tribe or subcontractor of such contractor shall maintain any and all records necessary to verify the nature and extent of the costs, property, goods, and services provided by the contractor or subcontractor to the Tribe throughout the term of the contract and for a minimum of three (3) years after final payment has been made to the contractor under the contract. The Tribe shall have access to and be entitled to examine and audit the books and records involving transactions related to a contract with the Tribe or subcontractor under such contract. In conducting any such audit, if the Tribe is able, it shall maintain the confidentiality of any information contained in the books and records that is deemed proprietary as determined by the Tribe.

8. Without being a default by the Tribe or giving rise to any claim against the Tribe, but not limiting a contractor's right to appropriate payment for property or goods delivered or services performed, the Tribe may terminate any contract for any of the following reasons notwithstanding any provision of the contract to the contrary:

a. When required by applicable law;

b. The furnishing of any statement, representation, warranty, or certification in connection with the contract or its solicitation, procurement, or award that is false, deceptive, or materially incorrect or incomplete;

c. Fraud, misappropriation, embezzlement, malfeasance, misfeasance, or illegal conduct pertaining to performance under the contract by the contractor, its agents, employees, officers, directors, or shareholders;

d. The contractor's existence or good standing in the territory of the Tribe is suspended, terminated, revoked, or forfeited or any license or certification held by the contractor related to contractor's performance of the contract is suspended, terminated, revoked, or forfeited; or

e. In the event funding for the contract is no longer available, including funds not being appropriated to continue a contract which extends beyond appropriations made for a single fiscal year.

9. While the Tribe will comply with its obligations under an adhesion contract to which it has otherwise expressly assented, notwithstanding any term, provision, or clause in such contract, any adhesion contract to which the Tribe is a party or is incorporated into a contract to which the Tribe is a party, including third party terms and conditions:

a. Shall, at the option of the Tribe, not be binding on or enforceable against the Tribe;

b. Shall be construed strictly against the drafting party and liberally in favor of the Tribe regardless of any clause to the contrary, including any clause that ambiguities will not be interpreted against or in favor of any party;

c. To the extent it may be binding or enforceable against the Tribe, shall be binding on and enforceable only to the extent it does not override or waive any provision of this Chapter or any other law of the Tribe, even if such provision is otherwise subject to being waived or overridden;

d. Shall only be governed by and subject to interpretation and construction under the laws of the Tribe and not any foreign jurisdiction;

e. Shall only permit disputes against the Tribe to be brought in the Tribal Court and allow the Tribe to bring a dispute against the other parties in the Tribal Court or any other court having jurisdiction, any provision purporting to require a dispute to be brought in, or the Tribe to consent to, any foreign court or using any other method of dispute resolution being against public policy and void and unenforceable;

f. May be terminated by the Tribe for no cause, at the convenience of the Tribe, or in the best interests of the Tribe upon thirty (30) days written notice without penalty or giving rise to any claim for damages against the Tribe other than appropriate payment for property or goods delivered or services performed; and

g. Shall not waive, or in any manner be construed to waive, the sovereign immunity of the Tribe, even if such waiver otherwise complies with the laws of the Tribe, including this Title.

10. Any contract to which the Tribe is a party or is incorporated into a contract to which the Tribe is a party, including third party terms and conditions, which has not been actually reviewed by legal counsel for the Tribe shall be construed strictly against the drafting party and liberally in favor of the Tribe regardless of any clause to the contrary, including any clause that ambiguities will not be interpreted against or in favor of any party.

11. A contractor of the Tribe may not transfer or assign the contract or any interest in the contract to another person, expressly or by operation of law, without the express written consent of the Tribe. A transfer or assignment as the result of a merger, acquisition, division, interest exchange, or similar action which results in the transfer of more than forty-nine percent (49%) of the ownership or controlling interest of a contractor shall be deemed a transfer or assignment of a contract under this subsection. A purported transfer in violation of this subsection annuls the contract, except that all rights of action for breach of contract are reserved to the Tribe. This subsection shall not prohibit the assignment of amounts due from the Tribe under a contract to a bank, lending institution, or other financing institution so long as such assignment does not create, impair, or effect an obligation of the Tribe.

12. Any contract to provide property, goods, or services to the Tribe shall, as a matter of law, be deemed made, entered into, and performed in the territory of the Tribe. Any other contract with the Tribe shall, as a matter of law, be deemed made, entered into, and performed where the Tribe performs its obligations under the contract.

13. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract, law of another jurisdiction, or rule or standard of a dispute resolution tribunal and no provision of a contract with the Tribe which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

Section 1-8-5. Preference in Contracting.

1. Subject to all other requirements governing the award of contracts, including responsibility, the Tribe shall, to the extent feasible, give preference in the award of contracts with the Tribe to:

a. First, natural persons who are, and entities which are majority owned and controlled by, an enrolled member of the Tribe and can perform the contract; and

b. Second, natural persons who are, and entities which are majority owned and controlled by, an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe and can perform the contract.

2. Every contractor of the Tribe shall:

a. Give preference in employment opportunities under the contract to enrolled members of federally recognized tribes who can perform the required work;

b. To the extent feasible and consistent with the efficient performance of the contract, give preference in employment and training opportunities under the contract to enrolled members of federally recognized tribes who are not fully qualified to perform the work;

c. To the extent feasible and consistent with the efficient performance of the contract, give preference in the awarding of any subcontracts to natural persons who are, and entities which are majority owned and controlled by, an enrolled member of a federally recognized tribe; and

d. Ensure the requirements of this subsection are included in each subcontract awarded under the contract.

3. Every contractor shall maintain such records as are necessary to indicate compliance with this Section.

4. Without being a default by the Tribe or giving rise to any claim against the Tribe, but not limiting a contractor's right to appropriate payment for property or goods delivered or services performed, the Tribe may terminate a contract in whole or in part if the contractor fails or refuses to comply with this Section, notwithstanding any provision of the contract to the contrary.

5. To the extent not inconsistent with this Section, the provisions or requirements related to preference in contracting with the Tribe or employment by contractors of the Tribe in any other law of the Tribe or any policy of the Tribe approved by the Tribal Council shall apply to any contractor of the Tribe, any contract awarded by the Tribe, and any awarding of a contract by the Tribe.

Section 1-8-6. Contractor Responsibility.

1. The Tribe shall only contract with responsible persons. To be determined responsible to contract with the Tribe, a person must:

a. Have adequate financial resources to perform the contract, or the ability to obtain them;

b. Be able to comply with the required or proposed delivery or performance under the contract;

c. Be able to handle any necessary issues, general and unique, related to Indian tribes and their status as governments;

d. Have a satisfactory performance record, provided that a person shall not be determined responsible or nonresponsible solely on the basis of a lack of relevant performance history;

e. Have a satisfactory record of integrity and business ethics, including compliance with and meeting the requirements of the conduct of business entities under the laws of the Tribe;

f. Have the necessary organization, experience, equipment, facilities, and skills or the ability to obtain them;

g. Not limit, or seek or attempt to limit, the costs, consequences, responsibility, or liability for the acts, errors, omissions, or conduct of the person or anyone for whom the person is legally responsible or shift the same to the public or third parties who would not otherwise be legally responsible, including by limiting the amount of direct damages or monetary relief which may be sought or obtained from the person for their acts, errors, omissions, or conduct; and

h. Be otherwise qualified and eligible to receive an award of a contract under the laws of the Tribe.

2. The Tribe shall not contract with any person who has been convicted of, or plead guilty or no contest to, a crime or civil offense or been found through an administrative or judicial process to have engaged in conduct that involves:

a. Fraud of any type, including those arising out of a contract, grant, or other assistance with the Tribe or a foreign government;

b. Dishonesty, deceit, misrepresentation, or deliberate violence;

c. Embezzlement, counterfeiting, forgery, fraudulent conversion, perjury, false claims or statements, bribes, kickbacks, misappropriations of property, unfair or deceptive trade practices, or restraint of trade;

d. Threatened or actual harm to a Tribal official or their immediate or extended family member or to Tribal property;

e. An attempt to evade or defeat taxes lawfully imposed by the Tribe or any foreign jurisdiction;

f. Willful failure or refusal to collect or pay over any Tribal tax;

g. Conduct that otherwise reflects adversely on the person's honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness to own, control, or operate a business or that casts doubt on the integrity or ethics of the person.

3. The Tribe shall not contract with any person who has been suspended from, debarred from, excluded from, or otherwise determined to be ineligible for contracting with the Tribe or any foreign jurisdiction. No contractor of the Tribe shall subcontract with or hire any person who is not eligible for contracting with the Tribe under this subsection. Without being a default by the Tribe or giving rise to any claim against the Tribe, but not limiting a contractor's right to appropriate payment for property or goods delivered or services performed to the extent not prohibited by applicable law, in the event a contractor of the Tribe or subcontractor of such contract is suspended from, debarred from, excluded from, or otherwise determined to be ineligible for contracting with the Tribe or any foreign jurisdiction during the term of the contract, or if at any time during the term of the contract it is determined that a contractor or subcontractor is not compliant with this subsection, the contract or subcontract will automatically terminate as of the effective date of such suspension, debarment, exclusion, or other ineligibility.

4. By proposing or entering into a contract with the Tribe, a contractor represents and warrants that it meets the requirements of this Section.

Section 1-8-7. Data and Information Under Tribal Contracts.

1. The Tribe shall have the unlimited right, irrevocably, non-exclusively, and royalty-free, to publish, duplicate, use, and disclose all documents, information, and data developed or obtained by a contractor on behalf of the Tribe pursuant to a contract with the Tribe.

2. No person shall sell, resell, license, trade, otherwise transfer for consideration, or offer to sell, resell, license, trade, or otherwise transfer for consideration, any data or other information concerning the Tribe or any data or information concerning a natural person that can directly or indirectly identify the natural person which such person received or obtained from a contract with the Tribe without the express written consent of the Tribe or the natural person affected thereby. In addition to any other consequences for violating this subsection, a person who violates this subsection shall be subject to a civil fine for each violation of up to the greatest of:

a. Twice the amount of the compensation or consideration received for such violation;

b. The gross contract price under the contract where such data or information was received or obtained; or

c. Five percent (5%) of the person's gross income for the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the violation.

3. The Tribe shall own and hold exclusive title to any and all deliverables, documents, and works of authorship, including reports, drawings, estimates, field notes, investigations, analyses, studies, specifications, images, photographs, sound recordings, video, animation, and software, prepared in performance of a contract with the Tribe or developed for the Tribe as a result of a contract with the Tribe, provided that the Tribe may permit a contractor to retain ownership to the contractor's working papers used to prepare deliverables to the Tribe. No contractor of the Tribe shall have ownership interest or title to and shall not patent, license, copyright, duplicate, transfer, sell, or exchange the design, specifications, concepts, or deliverables developed for the Tribe as a result of a contract with the Tribe.

4. Nothing in this Section shall grant any title to the Tribe to any design, specification, concept, data, information, or material used generally in a contractor's work or business and not prepared, developed, or obtained for the Tribe in the performance of the contract with the Tribe.

Section 1-8-8. Confidentiality Clauses.

1. No provision of a contract with the Tribe governing or requiring confidentiality or non-disclosure of documents, information, or data of any kind shall:

a. Be read or construed to abrogate or limit the right of members of the Tribe to inspect official records or financial records of the Tribe pursuant to, in accordance with, and to the extent permitted or required under the Constitution or any other law of the Tribe; or

b. Apply to any disclosure the Tribe is required or needs to make for purposes of any audit, review, or inspection by or for a Tribal government entity or authorized foreign jurisdiction.

2. Any provision of a contract with the Tribe requiring notice to any person prior to, contemporaneously with, or in any manner as a condition or part of disclosure of documents, information, or data of any kind shall not, as a matter of law, apply to:

a. An inspection of official records or financial records of the Tribe by a member of the Tribe pursuant to and in accordance with the Constitution or any other law of the Tribe; or

b. A disclosure necessary or required for purposes of any audit, review, or inspection by or for a Tribal government entity or authorized foreign jurisdiction.

3. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe or any subcontract thereof which purports to make the terms of the contract or payments made thereunder confidential or otherwise subject to non-disclosure is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

4. Nothing in this Section shall permit disclosure of, or require the Tribe to disclose or reveal, any documents, information, or data of any kind which is privileged, otherwise prohibited from disclosure under applicable law, or which the Tribe is not required to disclose under applicable law.

Section 1-8-9. Payments under Tribal Contracts.

1. Payments shall be made by the Tribe only when contractual deliverables are received or in accordance with specific contractual terms and conditions.

2. No property, goods, or services shall be deemed to be received by the Tribe until all such property, goods, or services are completely delivered and finally accepted by the Tribe.

3. No contract with the Tribe may provide for, allow, or require payment in advance for any property, goods, or services in an amount greater than ten percent (10%) of the contract price, unless such payment in advance is held under the custody and control of a third party in a manner which ensures the security of any funds provided in advance. This subsection shall not prevent the payment of:

a. A subscription or other recurring compensation under a contract where payment is made for property, goods, or services no more than one (1) month in advance;

b. A security deposit for a lease of property by the Tribe which does not exceed the value of two (2) months of payments under the lease;

c. A reasonable earnest deposit for the purchase of real property by the Tribe;

d. A reasonable advance fee paid to legal counsel and held in a regulated trust account of the legal counsel until actually earned by the legal counsel; or

e. A reasonable retainer paid in advance for accounting, legal, or similar professional services where the contractor is not entitled to any additional compensation for the period covered by the retainer.

4. No contract with the Tribe may provide for, allow, or require the Tribe to pay or be liable in any manner for any costs, including legal counsel fees, of a contractor incurred as a result of or in any manner related to the bidding, proposing, negotiation, preparation, or award of the contract.

5. Any contractor of the Tribe not receiving payment in full for property or goods delivered or services rendered within the time period when due under the contractual terms and conditions may charge the Tribe interest on the unpaid principal balance in accordance with the following, provided the time period when due is at least thirty (30) days from receipt of a valid invoice or bill by the Tribe:

a. Interest may only be charged if expressly provided for in the contract;

b. The amount of interest shall be the rate specified in the contract, provided such rate is not more than twelve percent (12%) per year, any greater rate being usury;

c. Interest charges will begin to accrue on the first calendar day after the due date of the payment or the thirty-first (31st) day, whichever is later;

d. Interest charges shall terminate no later than the date on which payment in full of the amount due is sent to the contractor or otherwise made;

e. The Tribe shall pay the interest charge upon request unless the invoice or bill is the subject of a good faith dispute between the Tribe and the contractor; and

f. No claim for interest charges shall be allowed unless the Tribe is requested to pay the interest charges within ninety (90) calendar days from the date on which payment in full is due.

6. In the event that a contractor of the Tribe owes the Tribe any sum under the terms of any contract with the Tribe, pursuant to a judgment, or pursuant to any law, the Tribe may, in its sole discretion, deduct such sum from any amount payable to the contractor under any contract with the Tribe, unless otherwise prohibited by law, provided such deducted amounts are identified to the contractor.

7. When a subcontractor has delivered property or goods or performed services in accordance with the provisions of a subcontract of a contract with the Tribe and all conditions precedent to payment contained in the subcontract have been satisfied, the contractor shall pay the subcontractor and the subcontractor shall pay the subcontractor's subcontractor within ten (10) days of receipt by the contractor or subcontractor of each payment received for the amount received for the subcontractor's property or goods delivered or services performed under the subcontract, less any contractually or statutory permitted or required withholding, so long as the subcontractor provides satisfactory and reasonable assurances of continued performance and financial responsibility to complete the delivery of property or goods and/or performance of services under the subcontract. If a contractor or subcontractor fails to make payment as required under this subsection, the Tribe or contractor, in the case of its subcontractor, may withhold the amount due from subsequent payments until all payments required under this subsection are made. In addition, the subcontractor may charge the contractor or subcontractor, as the case may be, interest on the unpaid amount at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per year from the day following the payment due date until the amount due is paid.

8. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract, law of another jurisdiction, or rule or standard of a dispute resolution tribunal and no provision of a contract with the Tribe which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

Section 1-8-10. Validity of Certain Contract Provisions.

1. No contract with the Tribe or which is sought to be enforced against the Tribe shall:

a. Authorize or obligate the Tribe or any Tribal official to operate outside of the scope of authority of such Tribal official;

b. Provide for or obligate any Tribal official to in any manner be held liable for the actions of the Tribe;

c. Effect, modify, limit, or waive:

i. The sovereign authority, jurisdiction, or rights of the Tribe, except for waivers of sovereign immunity granted in strict accordance with the laws of the Tribe;

ii. Any law of the Tribe which is not expressly subject to waiver or exception; or

iii. The authority or jurisdiction of the Tribal Court as a separate branch, except to the extent permitted in the provisions of this Chapter allowing for a choice of tribunal;

d. Require the Tribe or any Tribal official to obtain or maintain any license or authorization from any foreign jurisdiction which such foreign jurisdiction lacks authority to require of the Tribe or such Tribal official;

e. Require, permit, authorize, state, or imply:

i. Any endorsement of a person, event, product, or service by the Tribe or any Tribal official in their official capacities and titles; or

ii. Use of the name, position, or title of the Tribe or any Tribal official to suggest official endorsement or preferential treatment of any person;

f. Violate, or permit the violation of, any law of the Tribe or any rights of persons under the laws of the Tribe, including human rights provided under the Constitution;

g. Provided that the Tribe may later assent to an amendment or modification in the interests of the Tribe and claim any right of the Tribe or obligation of a party under such amendment or modification, be amended or modified:

i. Unilaterally by another party;

ii. By absence of objection of the Tribe;

iii. By silence or inaction of the Tribe; or

iv. Other than expressly in a writing duly approved and executed by the Tribe;

h. Provide for, allow, or require payment of any amount for loss of profit, anticipated profit, undelivered property or goods, or unperformed services, whether as damages, termination costs or fees, or otherwise, provided that a contract may permit payment of:

i. Early termination fees if there is a documented discount in the amount of compensation paid under the contract in consideration for the length of the term and the amount of early termination fees is no more than the amount of the discount for the term of the contract through the date of termination;

ii. Actual out of pocket costs resulting from termination that are reasonably identified in the contract and would not have arisen or been incurred had the contract not been terminated; or

iii. Costs or fees which would be allowable as liquidated damages under this Section.

i. Permit any claim or recovery for indirect, incidental, special, exemplary, punitive, consequential, or other non-direct damages, including loss of profit, loss of business, and loss of goodwill, provided that a contract may provide for reasonable liquidated damages if:

i. Actual damages, though real, are difficult or impossible to prove and the liquidated damages are the exclusive damages recoverable;

ii. The amount of liquidated damages reasonably accurately reflects the actual anticipated damages and the liquidated damages are the exclusive damages recoverable; or

iii. The liquidated damages are related solely to delay and coupled with a corresponding bonus for early performance;

j. Limit the amount of direct damages or other recovery the Tribe may seek or obtain against any other party to the contract, such provisions demonstrating lack of contractor responsibility and being unconscionable, provided if a provision in a contract which is in violation of this subsection cannot be deemed void or unenforceable for any reason:

i. Any limit in the amount of damages or recovery the Tribe may seek or obtain against any party shall also apply to the amount of damages or recovery such party may seek or obtain against the Tribe regardless of the basis for such claim against the Tribe, including breach of contract;

ii. Any limit in the amount of damages or recovery shall not apply to claims for personal injury or death, property damage, breaches of confidentiality, indemnification obligations, breaches of provisions related to anti-corruption, civil fines imposed under the laws of the Tribe, or any other claim which is not a default or breach of contract;

iii. Any claim for damages or amounts against the Tribe in excess of any limit in the contract shall not be subject to any contract claim under this Chapter or any waiver of immunity, even if the waiver otherwise complies with the laws fo the Tribe;

k. Not waive the right or ability of the Tribe to bring, join, or participate in any joint, class, representative, or collective action or to a jury trial, but this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the Tribe from making such waivers in an actual pending dispute to which the Tribe is a party; or

l. Other than a valid contract of insurance; an instrument with the primary purpose to be a release or waiver of liability or otherwise protect parties from legal claims or damages that may arise from a specific activity, assume risk of a specific activity, or settle a pending claim or dispute of liability; or a provision in a contract requiring a person to purchase, maintain, and carry insurance, including naming another as an additional insured, to cover the acts or omissions of such person for the purpose of providing coverage to the other for liability due to the acts or omissions of the person obtaining such insurance:

i. Require the Tribe to indemnify, insure, defend, hold harmless, or in any manner be responsible for any negligence, fault, act, error, omission, or conduct of a third party whom is not under the control or supervision of the Tribe or for whom the Tribe would not otherwise be legally responsible, including a party to the contract;

ii. Limit the liability or responsibility of another person, including for bodily injury, death, or damage to tangible property of the Tribe, caused by the negligence or fault of such person or anyone under the control or supervision of the person or for whom such person would otherwise be legally responsible, such provisions demonstrating lack of contractor responsibility;

iii. Require a person to indemnify, defend, or hold harmless another person against liability caused by the negligence or fault of the person or anyone under the control or supervision of the person or for whom the person would otherwise be legally responsible; or

iv. Otherwise violate the public policy of the Tribe that parties to a contract be and are fully responsible for their own negligence, fault, acts, errors, omissions, and conduct and the acts, errors, omissions, and conduct of those for whom they would otherwise be legally responsible.

2. Any contract, form, or other document provided by the Tribe and properly executed by the parties shall, in addition to the provisions of this Chapter, supersede and take precedence over any contract, proposal, form, or other document provided by a contractor of the Tribe and properly executed by the parties and any terms in such executed contract, proposal, form, or other document provided by a contractor of the Tribe shall be excluded from the contract between the parties or, to the extent not excludable, only included in the contract between the parties where such term does not conflict with the executed contract, form, or other document provided by the Tribe.

3. No term, provision, or language in a contract, resolution, or other document asserting, declaring, or agreeing that the contract or any provision therein is irrevocable, valid, or enforceable shall supersede the provisions of this Chapter and shall be construed to mean the contract or provision is irrevocable, valid, or enforceable subject to and only to the extent consistent with this Section and any other laws of the Tribe.

4. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract, law of another jurisdiction, or rule or standard of a dispute resolution tribunal and no provision of a contract with the Tribe which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

Section 1-8-11. Corrupt Practices.

1. For purposes of this Section, "remuneration" means money, fee, commission, credit, gift, gratuity, thing of value, or compensation of any kind.

2. A person may not:

a. Provide, give, attempt to provide or give, or offer, directly or indirectly, any remuneration to:

i. Obtain a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract;

ii. Obtain or receive favorable treatment in connection with a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract, including the selection process and contract execution; or

iii. Otherwise influence the action of a Tribal official in connection with a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract, including the selection process and contract execution;

b. Solicit, receive, accept, or attempt to accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any remuneration to:

i. Provide a benefit from the Tribe or award a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract;

ii. Provide favorable treatment in connection with a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract, including the selection process and contract execution; or

iii. Otherwise influence the action of such person in connection with a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract, including the selection process and contract execution;

c. Harm or threaten to harm, directly or indirectly, any person or their property to influence such person in connection with a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract, including in the selection process, or participation therein, and contract execution; or

d. Include any remuneration prohibited under this subsection in the contract price or other consideration of a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such contract.

3. No person may be employed or retained to solicit or secure a benefit from the Tribe or a contract with the Tribe upon an agreement or understanding for any remuneration. This subsection shall not apply to:

a. Bona fide employees of a person maintained by such person in the ordinary course of business for the purpose of securing business for the person; or

b. Bona fide brokers that arrange contracts and act as an intermediary between a buyer and seller for a commission.

4. No person may make an intentional misrepresentation of facts to:

a. Obtain a benefit from the Tribe;

b. Influence the selection process or execution of a contract with the Tribe or a subcontract of such a contract to the detriment of the Tribe;

c. Establish bid or contract prices at artificial non-competitive levels; or

d. Deprive the Tribe of the benefits of free and open competition.

5. No person may engage in any scheme or arrangement between two or more persons, with or without the knowledge of the Tribe, with a purpose of establishing bid or contract prices at artificial, non-competitive levels.

6. No Tribal official shall be admitted to any share or part of any contract with the Tribe or subcontract of such a contract or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, provided this subsection will not be construed to apply to:

a. A contract made with a publicly traded corporation whose ownership incidentally includes a Tribal official so long as the contract or subcontract is made for the general benefit of the corporation in the ordinary course of business; or

b. To any benefits that may accrue from the contract or subcontract to a Tribal official as, and to the same extent as, a member of the class of persons for whose benefit property or goods are provided or services performed under the contract.

7. Every contractor of the Tribe and every subcontractor of such contractor shall disclose to the Tribe any member of the Tribe or Tribal official who has an interest, financially or otherwise, with the contractor or subcontractor. This subsection does not apply to the ownership of publicly traded stock by a member of the Tribe or Tribal official where the amount of such stock constitutes less than ten percent (10%) of the total stock of such contractor or subcontractor.

8. The Tribe shall have access to and may inspect the facilities and audit the books and records, including electronic data or records, of a contractor of the Tribe or a subcontractor under such a contract to determine whether a violation of this Section has occurred.

9. A contractor or subcontractor shall cooperate fully with the Tribe investigating a violation of this Section as a condition of the contract with the Tribe or subcontract thereof.

10. A contractor shall be responsible for any employee or subcontractor who violates this Section and a subcontractor shall be responsible for any employee of the subcontractor who violates this Section.

11. In addition to any other consequences for a violation of this Section, the Tribe may deduct the amount of any remuneration provided in violation of this Section from amounts the Tribe owes or will pay the contractor under the contract with the Tribe to which the remuneration relates.

12. In addition to any other consequences for a violation of this Section, the Tribe may terminate the contract of any contractor to which any violation of this Section relates immediately upon notice to the contractor without any penalty or damages payable to or owing the contractor, but not limiting a contractor's right to appropriate payment for property or goods delivered or services performed.

13. In addition to any other consequences for a violation of this Section, a person who knowingly engages in conduct prohibited by this Section may be subject to a civil fine for each prohibited act in an amount the greatest of:

a. Four (4) times the amount of the remuneration involved in the violation;

b. The full remuneration paid to the contractor under the contract to which the remuneration relates minus the legitimate documented out of pocket costs and expenses paid by the contractor to perform the contract;

c. Ten percent (10%) of the gross contract price or consideration paid under the contract to which the remuneration relates; or

d. Five percent (5%) of the person's gross income for the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the violation.

14. A civil fine for a violation of this Section may be imposed by the Tribal government entity from who the related benefit or contract was obtained and thereafter enforced and collected through a civil cause of action brought by such Tribal government entity on behalf of the Tribe in the Tribal Court or through any other method of imposing or enforcing civil fines under the laws of the Tribe.

15. The Tribe may deduct the amount of a civil fine imposed under this Section against a contractor from amounts the Tribe owes or will pay the contractor under any contract it may have with the Tribe.

16. The Tribe may report any violation of this Section to the appropriate officials of other jurisdictions and request an investigation and, if appropriate, prosecution of such violation as a violation of the laws of that jurisdiction, including the criminal laws of that jurisdiction.

17. By proposing or entering into a contract with the Tribe, a contractor represents and warrants that it meets the requirements of this Section.

18. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

19. The provisions of this Section shall apply to employment with the Tribe.

Section 1-8-12. False Claims.

1. A person makes a false claim if that person:

a. Knowingly presents, or causes to be presented, a false or fraudulent claim for payment or approval;

b. Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used a false record or statement material to a false or fraudulent claim;

c. Has possession, custody, or control of property or money used, or to be used, by the Tribe and knowingly delivers, or causes to be delivered, less than all of the money or property;

d. Authorizes the making or delivery of a document certifying receipt of property used, or to be used, by the Tribe and, with the intent to defraud the Tribe, makes or delivers the receipt without completely knowing that the information on the receipt is true;

e. Knowingly buys, or receives as a pledge of an obligation or debt, public property from a Tribal official who lawfully may not sell or pledge the property;

f. Knowingly makes, uses, or causes to be made or used a false record or statement material to an obligation to pay money or transmit property to the Tribe, or knowingly conceals or knowingly and improperly avoids or decreases an obligation to pay money or transmit property to the Tribe; or

g. Conspires to commit a violation of this subsection.

2. For purposes of this Section, "claim":

a. Means any request or demand, whether under a contract or otherwise, for money or property and whether or not the Tribe has title to the money or property, that is:

i. Presented to a Tribal official; or

ii. Made to a contractor, grantee, or other recipient, if the money or property is to be spent or used on the Tribe's behalf or to advance a government program or interest, and if the Tribe either provides or has provided any portion of the money or property or will reimburse such contractor, grantee, or other recipient for any portion of the money or property;

b. Includes the failure to pay or an underpayment of amounts owed to the Tribe; and

c. Does not include a request or demand for money or property that the Tribe has paid to a natural person as compensation for employment by the Tribe or as an income subsidy with no restrictions on that natural person's use of the money or property.

3. In addition to any other consequences for a false claim, a person who makes a false claim as defined in this Section shall be subject to a civil fine for each false claim of up to the greater of:

a. Five percent (5%) of the person's gross income for the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the false claim; or

b. One and one-half (1-1/2) times the value or amount of benefit the person obtained or attempted to obtain as a result of the false claim.

4. A civil fine for a false claim may be imposed by the Tribal government entity to whom the false claim was made or submitted and thereafter enforced and collected through a civil cause of action brought by such Tribal government entity on behalf of the Tribe in the Tribal Court or through any other method of imposing or enforcing civil fines under the laws of the Tribe.

5. The provisions of this Section shall apply to employment with the Tribe.

Section 1-8-13. Suspension and Debarment.

1. In addition to any other consequences for the act or conduct, a person may be debarred from contracting with the Tribe for any of the following reasons:

a. Misrepresentation, fraud, misconduct, or a violation or offense in obtaining or attempting to obtain a public or private contract or subcontract or in the performance of such a contract or subcontract, including avoiding or violating the procurement procedures of the Tribe;

b. Willful falsification of documentation or willful misrepresentation of qualifications required to obtain a contract with the Tribe;

c. Embezzlement, theft, forgery, bribery, falsification or destruction of records, perjury, making false statements, tax evasion, violating Tribal tax laws, or receiving stolen property;

d. Any violation of law or offense or other behavior or performance indicating a lack of business integrity or business honesty or ethics;

e. Refusal to abide by the laws of the Tribe applicable to the person, including as a result of entering into a contract or other consensual relationship with the Tribe or a member of the Tribe;

f. Attempting to require, as a condition or term of a contract, that the Tribe violate or otherwise not comply with laws applicable to the Tribe;

g. Violation of the terms of a contract with the Tribe or subcontract thereof so serious as to justify debarment, such as willful failure to perform in accordance with the terms of one or more contracts, or a history of failure to perform or unsatisfactory performance of one or more contracts;

h. Violation of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing in a contract with the Tribe or subcontract thereof which justifies debarment;

i. Delinquent, unpaid, or unremitted Tribal taxes;

j. Current debarment by any foreign jurisdiction;

k. Any other grounds provided for in the laws of the Tribe; or

l. Any other cause of so serious or compelling a nature that it affects the responsibility of the person.

2. A conviction, civil judgment, or final administrative action establishing grounds for debarment shall be conclusive. In all other cases, the grounds for debarment must be established by the balance of probabilities.

3. A Tribal government entity may commence debarment proceedings against a person by issuing a written notice of proposed debarment to the person which states:

a. That debarment is being considered;

b. The reasons for the proposed debarment in terms sufficient to put the person on notice of the conduct or transactions upon which it is based;

c. The grounds under this Section for proposing debarment;

d. The potential effect of an actual debarment; and

e. That, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice, the person may submit, in writing, information and argument in opposition to the proposed debarment, including any additional specific information that raises a genuine dispute over the material facts.

4. After the time for submitting opposition to a proposed debarment has expired, the Tribal government entity shall review all information, including any written response of the person, and, unless the grounds for debarment are conclusive under this Section, make written findings of material facts and, if debarment is recommended, forward any findings and the recommendation to the Tribal Council for action. The Tribal government entity may conduct such other investigations, hearings, or proceedings it deems necessary to determine the material facts and make a recommendation, giving due regard to providing appropriate due process which may be required to the person subject to the proposed debarment.

5. Upon receipt of a recommendation for debarment, the Tribal Council shall make a final determination of debarment. The Tribal Council may request evidence or additional findings to make its determination and may request further written response or conduct a hearing or other proceedings as it deems necessary to make a determination, giving due regard to providing appropriate due process which may be required to the person subject to the proposed debarment. The Tribal Council's decision shall be provided in writing to the person debarred. Debarment shall be for an indefinite period unless the Tribal Council specifically orders otherwise.

6. Persons debarred for an indefinite period may request in writing that the Tribal government entity which initiated the debarment lift the debarment at the end of one (1) year. The Tribal government entity shall review the request and make a recommendation to the Tribal Council. The request and recommendation will be forwarded to the Tribal Council who may lift the debarment if it is made to appear, as the Tribal Council directs, that the person has been adequately reprovved and now appears willing to conduct business in a proper manner, and that, if debarred in a foreign jurisdiction, such debarment has ended or otherwise been lifted.

7. Prior to debarment, a Tribal government entity may suspend a contractor of the Tribe for any of the grounds for debarment set forth in this Section if such Tribal government entity finds there is adequate evidence of such grounds, pending the completion of investigation or further proceedings, and it determines that immediate action is necessary to protect the Tribe's interests. An indictment, civil complaint, notice of violation, imposition of civil fine, or other institution of legal proceedings related to the grounds for suspension shall be adequate evidence for suspension. When a contractor is suspended, the contractor shall be immediately notified in writing:

a. That the contractor has been suspended and the suspension is based on an indictment, civil complaint, notice of violation, imposition of civil fine, or other institution of legal proceedings or other adequate evidence that there are grounds for debarment under this Section;

b. That it has been determined immediate action is necessary to protect the Tribe's interests;

c. That the suspension is for a temporary period pending the completion of an investigation and such legal proceedings as may ensue;

d. The grounds under this Section for imposing suspension;

e. The effect of the suspension;

f. That, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice, the contractor may submit, in writing, information and argument in opposition to the suspension, including any additional specific information that raises a genuine dispute over the material facts; and

g. Unless the suspension is based on an indictment, civil complaint, notice of violation, imposition of civil fine, or other institution of legal proceedings, that additional proceedings to determine disputed material facts will be conducted.

8. After the time for submitting opposition to a suspension has expired, the Tribal government entity shall review all information and make any necessary written findings of material facts. Any findings and the decision on the suspension shall be provided in writing to the contractor and, unless the suspension is to be lifted, forwarded to the Tribal Council. The Tribal Council may set aside a suspension and, in such a case, notice of the Tribal Council's action will be provided to the contractor. Any decision to lift, modify, or terminate a suspension shall be without prejudice to the subsequent imposition of suspension by another Tribal government entity or imposition of debarment.

9. Suspension shall be pending the completion of investigation and any ensuing legal proceedings, provided that the suspension shall be terminated if no legal proceedings or debarment proceedings under this Section are initiated within twelve (12) months.

10. Unless the suspension or debarment decision provides otherwise, suspension and debarment constitute suspension and debarment, as the case may be:

a. Of all subsidiaries, divisions, other organizational elements, officers, directors, and employees of the person; and

b. From employment or contracting with the Tribe and any of its Tribal government entities and other entities.

Section 1-8-14. Law Applicable.

1. Except as otherwise expressly permitted in this Section, the laws of the Tribe, exclusive of any choice of law principles, shall exclusively govern and be utilized for:

a. The interpretation and construction of all contracts with the Tribe, regardless of any designation of a court or tribunal for disputes or the enforcement of the contract; and

b. The enforcement of all contracts with the Tribe and any judgment or award obtained thereunder, regardless of any designation of a law to govern or be utilized for construction and interpretation of the contract.

2. Subject to the requirements of this Section and any other requirements or limitations in the laws of the Tribe, the Tribe may agree in a contract upon all or any of the following:

a. The jurisdiction whose substantive law will be utilized for the construction and interpretation of the contract or any dispute, including specific specialized law of a particular jurisdiction as a supplement to any other substantive law used for construction and interpretation; and

b. The jurisdiction whose substantive law will be utilized for any dispute, any dispute resolution, or the enforcement of the contract or any judgment or award.

3. Except as otherwise provided in the laws of the Tribe, a choice of substantive law in a contract with the Tribe is valid and enforceable, provided:

a. The law of the jurisdiction agreed upon is the law of the Tribe exclusive of choice of law principles;

b. The contract is made, entered into, and to be performed or actually performed by the Tribe in the jurisdiction agreed upon;

c. The law agreed upon is a specific specialized law of a particular jurisdiction utilized as a supplement to any other valid substantive law used for construction and interpretation; or

d. The law of the jurisdiction agreed upon is the law of a foreign jurisdiction within whose geographical bounds the territory of the Tribe is located within.

4. If a choice of substantive law is in a contract with the Tribe which is an adhesion contract, a contract not reviewed by legal counsel for the Tribe, or a contract where the Tribe was not permitted to negotiate or modify the provision on choice of substantive law and the choice of substantive law is not the laws of the Tribe exclusive of choice of law principles:

a. As a matter of law, the Tribe shall be deemed to have objected and not assented to the choice of substantive law;

b. The choice of substantive law is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable; and

c. The substantive law which will apply to the contract shall be the laws of the Tribe or, if the contract is not performed for the Tribe or in the territory of the Tribe, the laws of the place of performance of the Tribe.

5. A choice of law in a contract with the Tribe which is otherwise valid and enforceable, including a specific specialized law of a particular jurisdiction utilized as a supplement to any such choice of law, is subject to the following:

a. If such law is not the laws of the Tribe exclusive of choice of law principles, language such as "governed by," "subject to," or similar import shall mean solely for construction and interpretation of the contract and shall not include enforcement, jurisdiction, or authority;

b. If such law is not the laws of the Tribe exclusive of choice of law principles, such law will be limited to the use of the substantive law of the jurisdiction specified solely as a reference for the purpose of construction and interpretation in accordance with the principles governing adoption of laws by reference in this Title, including references to counterparts of the Tribe, and shall not in any manner constitute or be construed as:

i. A consent or agreement to the jurisdiction, authority, or applicability of such law to any party;

ii. Authorization for the enforcement of any such law against any party or the exercise of any regulatory authority over any party;

iii. An agreement to enforcement of the contract, including compelling dispute resolution and enforcement of any judgment or award, pursuant to such law or in the jurisdiction whose law is specified, unless expressly and unequivocally stated otherwise; or

iv. An agreement to submit any dispute or other matter to the courts or other tribunals of the jurisdiction whose law is specified;

c. Any such law which conflicts with this Chapter shall not be applied or used and the provisions of this Chapter shall govern, apply, and be used;

d. If the use or application of any principle, portion, or provision of such law would result in a party being in violation of or acting contrary to any public policy or law of the Tribe or any other law applicable to the party, such principle, portion, or provision of such law shall not be applied or used; and

e. Any other limitations or requirements in the laws of the Tribe regarding choice of law in contracts.

6. Unless such law is the laws of the Tribe exclusive of choice of law principles, a choice of law in a contract with the Tribe, whether for construction and interpretation or enforcement, shall not apply to:

a. Any dispute or matter which is a regulatory or other law enforcement action or matter, including the imposition of a civil fine under this Code; or

b. Any dispute or review of a dispute where applicable law provides another exclusive or specific remedy or procedure for the dispute.

7. A contract shall not make any law other than that of the Tribe applicable to or governing employment with the Tribe.

8. The following provisions in any contract or subcontract for construction work performed within the territory of the Tribe shall be against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable:

a. A provision that purports to make any law other than that of the Tribe applicable to or governing the contract; or

b. Other than a valid agreement to submit disputes to the court of a particular foreign jurisdiction, a provision that purports to require that the location for any dispute resolution be held at any location outside of the territory of the Tribe.

9. A reference to, inclusion of, or agreement to comply with any law of a foreign jurisdiction in a contract with the Tribe shall be solely a contractual obligation of the Tribe and shall not be a consent or agreement to the applicability of such law to the Tribe; authorization for the enforcement of such law against the Tribe; or authorization or agreement to the exercise of any regulatory, judicial, or other authority over the Tribe.

10. In any dispute resolution or other proceeding where a contract with the Tribe is subject to interpretation and construction or enforcement in accordance with the law of a foreign jurisdiction as provided in this Section, the Tribal Court shall apply the substantive law of the foreign jurisdiction in accordance with this Section, but the proceedings will otherwise be governed by the rules of procedure for the Tribal Court.

11. If a choice of law in a contract with the Tribe, whether for construction and interpretation or enforcement, is not valid and enforceable, as a matter of law, the contract shall be deemed to specify the laws of the Tribe, exclusive of choice of law principles, as the law to be utilized for its construction and interpretation or enforcement or, if not the territory of the Tribe, the place where the Tribe is actually performing its obligations under the contract.

12. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract, law of another jurisdiction, or rule or standard of a dispute resolution tribunal and no provision of a contract which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

Section 1-8-15. Choice of Tribunal.

1. Except as otherwise expressly permitted in this Section, the Tribal Court is the exclusive jurisdiction to hear any dispute or enforcement action related to a contract with the Tribe, including enforcing any judgment or award, regardless of whether the contract specifies the law governing or to be utilized for the contract, including the law governing or to be utilized for its interpretation or construction or for enforcement. A contractor refusing to recognize or be subject to the jurisdiction of the Tribal Court, as an independent branch of the Tribe, is contrary to the public policy of the Tribe and the principle that the benefit of doing business with the Tribe or in the territory of the Tribe requires acknowledging and accepting the concomitant duties, obligations, responsibilities, and conditions of complying with the laws of the Tribe and being subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the Tribe.

2. Subject to the requirements of this Section and any other requirements or limitations in the laws of the Tribe, the Tribe may agree in a contract upon the manner of dispute resolution and the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action relating to the contract with the Tribe.

3. Except as otherwise provided in the laws of the Tribe, a provision in a contract with the Tribe providing for the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action is valid and enforceable, provided it is not construed as a waiver of the sovereign immunity of the Tribe and:

a. The jurisdiction, court, or tribunal agreed upon is the Tribal Court, at least for disputes or enforcement actions brought against the Tribe;

b. The contract is made, entered into, and to be performed or actually performed by the Tribe in the jurisdiction agreed upon;

c. The dispute actually arose in the jurisdiction agreed upon;

d. The court agreed upon is a specific specialized court of a particular jurisdiction utilized solely for disputes related to matters within the specialization of such court; or

e. The court or tribunal agreed upon is that of a foreign jurisdiction within whose geographical bounds the territory of the Tribe is located within.

4. If a provision providing for the manner of dispute resolution and/or the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action is in a contract with the Tribe which is an adhesion contract, a contract not reviewed by legal counsel for the Tribe, or a contract where the Tribe was not permitted to negotiate or modify the provision on the same, and the Tribal Court is not the exclusive court to hear any dispute against the Tribe:

a. As a matter of law, the Tribe shall be deemed to have objected and not assented to the manner of dispute resolution and/or the choice of jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal;

b. The manner of dispute resolution and/or choice of jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable; and

c. The exclusive jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which may hear any dispute or enforcement action shall be the Tribal Court, at least for disputes or enforcement actions brought against the Tribe.

5. A provision in a contract with the Tribe providing for the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action against the Tribe which is not the Tribal Court must expressly state the precise jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal. A contract with the Tribe which references courts generally, courts of competent jurisdiction, or similar general language or does not specify the precise jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action:

a. Shall be deemed to refer solely to the Tribal Court as the exclusive jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal, at least for disputes or enforcement actions brought against the Tribe;

b. Shall not include or be a consent by the Tribe to any jurisdiction, court, or tribunal which could not exercise jurisdiction over the Tribe and the matter in the absence of or without regard to the contract; and

c. Shall be deemed an express consent to the Tribe bringing any dispute or enforcement action against any other party in the Tribal Court or in any other court which could exercise jurisdiction over the party and the matter in the absence of or without regard to the contract.

6. Subject to any additional requirements in the laws of the Tribe, the Tribe may agree to settle a dispute under a contract by arbitration or otherwise submit a dispute under a contract to an arbitrator in either a separate writing or as part of the contract, subject to the following:

a. The other party to the arbitration shall be required to pay all costs and fees of the arbitration, including the compensation of the arbitrator;

b. The Tribe shall not be liable for the payment of any costs or fees of the arbitration; any compensation of the arbitrator; or any costs or expenses, including legal counsel's fees, of any other party to the arbitration and any award of or claim for the same shall be void and unenforceable;

c. The contract or agreement to arbitrate shall specify a maximum award that may be issued by the arbitrator and may specify other conditions limiting the range of possible outcomes;

d. No person may require the Tribe to consent to arbitration as a condition of entering into a contract or obtaining a benefit under a contract;

e. An arbitrator must be neutral and have no official, financial, or personal conflict of interest with respect to the parties, the subject matter of the contract or dispute, or the issues in controversy;

f. The Tribe shall be entitled to participate in the selection of the arbitrator; and

g. Without limiting the effectiveness of the award between the Tribe and a party to the arbitration, an award entered in an arbitration proceeding involving the Tribe may not:

i. Serve as an estoppel against the Tribe in any other proceeding for any issue that was resolved in the proceeding; or

ii. Be used as precedent or otherwise be considered in any factually unrelated proceeding or in any court or other tribunal or proceeding, including another arbitration proceeding.

7. A provision in a contract with the Tribe providing for the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action shall not apply to:

a. Any dispute or matter which is a regulatory or other law enforcement action or matter, including the imposition of a civil fine under this Code;

b. Any dispute or review of a dispute where applicable law provides another exclusive or specific court, tribunal, remedy, or procedure for the dispute.

8. Except for valid claims for benefits related to employment under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction, a contract shall not provide or require that any dispute involving employment with the Tribe be submitted to any jurisdiction, court, or tribunal other than the Tribal Court. Nothing in this subsection shall prevent the Tribe from utilizing internal grievance or administrative processes, negotiation, or mediation within the territory of the Tribe to resolve disputes involving employment with the Tribe.

9. If a provision in a contract with the Tribe providing for the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action is not valid and enforceable, the contract shall be deemed to provide for the Tribal Court as the exclusive jurisdiction to hear any dispute or enforcement action relating to the contract, except that the Tribe may bring a dispute or enforcement action against any other party in any other court which could exercise jurisdiction over the party and the matter in the absence of or without regard to the contract.

10. Subject to the provisions of this Chapter governing choice of law in a contract with the Tribe, if a provision in a contract with the Tribe providing for the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal which will hear any dispute or enforcement action is otherwise valid and enforceable, the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal shall apply the substantive laws of the Tribe to any dispute or enforcement action, but the proceedings will otherwise be governed by the rules of procedure for the jurisdiction, court, or other tribunal agreed upon or otherwise validly provided for in the contract except where the laws of the Tribe provide an exclusive procedure for a matter involving the Tribe without regard to the jurisdiction, court, or tribunal involved.

11. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract, law of another jurisdiction, or rule or standard of a dispute resolution tribunal and no provision of a contract which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

Section 1-8-16. Contract Claims.

1. All claims against the Tribe regarding, under, or related in any manner to a contract between the Tribe and the claimant, including a dispute arising thereunder or therefrom, shall be filed with the following claims official, as appropriate:

a. For a contract with a Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity, the director or chief executive officer of the Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity; and

b. For any other contract with the Tribe, the procurement officer of the Tribe.

2. All claims under this Section shall be filed no later than the period of limitations applicable to the underlying dispute or basis for the claim.

3. All claims under this Section shall be in writing and include sufficient information for the claim to be processed and determined, but at least the following:

a. A copy of the contract subject of the claim, including any amendments to the contract;

b. The basis for the claim under the contract, including, if a breach is claimed, the manner in which the contract was allegedly breached by the Tribe;

c. The damages or other relief claimed or requested as a result of the claim, including any damages claimed as a result of any alleged breach of the contract by the Tribe;

d. Any supporting data or other information or documentation to support the claim and the damages or other relief claimed or requested; and

e. A certification made under oath or affirmation by a natural person authorized to bind the claimant with respect to the claim that:

i. The claim is made in good faith; and

ii. All information and supporting data provided are accurate and complete to the best of the claimant's knowledge and belief.

4. Upon receipt of a claim under this Section, the claims official shall immediately advise the following, in writing, of the filing of the claim and provide all information submitted with the claim along with any other information which the claims official may have related to the contract or the claim:

a. For a contract with a Tribal business entity or Tribal government entity, the legal counsel for the Tribal business entity or Tribal government entity, if not the Tribal Attorney; and

b. For any other contract with the Tribe, the Tribal Attorney.

5. Upon notice of the claim, the Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity shall cause an investigation to be made of the claim in coordination with the appropriate legal counsel and any other officials of the Tribe necessary or helpful in investigating the claim. The investigation shall seek to determine all of the facts underlying the claim and the legitimacy of the claim in order to best determine an appropriate resolution of the claim. The claimant shall cooperate fully with the investigation.

6. The legal counsel or the Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity reviewing and investigating the claim may request such information they deems necessary to make a proper and full investigation of the claim from any person. If such a request is made to the claimant and the claimant fails to respond or refuses to provide the information without justification supported by applicable law, the claim may be denied or deemed unsupported on that basis, in whole or in part. A denial or a determination that a claim is not supported due to a failure or refusal to provide information under this subsection shall not be considered a decision and shall not give rise to or meet the requirement of compliance with this Section prior to commencing any dispute resolution on the claim.

7. After the completion of the investigation, the legal counsel shall review the claim and the results of the investigation to make a recommendation for decision. The legal counsel may consult with such officials of the Tribe and obtain such other information as necessary to make an appropriate recommendation. The legal counsel shall independently determine, based on the investigation and facts determined:

a. Whether the claim is valid as a matter of law under the law applicable to the contract and claim;

b. If the claim is not valid as a matter of law, whether the claim should be considered based on equity; and

c. If the claim is found to be valid as a matter of law or subject to consideration based on equity, a recommendation for payment, relief, or other resolution of the claim, if any, giving due consideration for what the applicable law would allow or require and the equities involved.

8. The recommendation of the legal counsel reviewing the claim shall be provided to:

a. In the case of a contract with a Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity, the director, chief executive officer, or governing board of such Tribal government entity or Tribal business entity, provided:

i. The director, chief executive officer, or governing board may seek approval or input from the Tribal Council on behalf of the Tribe in reviewing the claim; and

ii. The Tribal Council may obtain a separate recommendation from the Tribal Attorney if a different legal counsel made the initial recommendation; and

b. In the case of any other contract with the Tribe, the Tribal Council.

9. Upon receipt of the recommendation, the Tribal Council, director, chief executive officer, or governing board, as appropriate, shall decide:

a. Whether to allow the claim; and

b. If the claim is to be allowed, the payment, relief, or other resolution which may be offered to the claimant.

10. The decision shall be provided in writing to the claimant. The decision may state the reasons for the decision reached, but specific findings of fact are not required. The reasons for the decision and any specific findings of fact are not binding in any subsequent proceeding.

11. The claimant may accept or reject the decision. If the claimant makes a counteroffer to the decision which is not authorized, it will be considered a rejection, but the counteroffer may be presented to the Tribal Council, director, chief executive officer, or governing board, as applicable, for acceptance as a revised decision. If the Tribal Council, director, chief executive officer, or governing board, as applicable, accepts the counteroffer, it will be deemed a decision accepted by the claimant under this Section.

12. If a claim is reviewed by legal counsel that is not the Tribal Attorney and the claimant rejects the decision, the claimant may request that the Tribal Attorney independently review the claim and make a recommendation under this Section. A request under this subsection shall be required prior to, and a condition precedent to, the bringing or filing of, or any proceedings on, any judicial review or dispute resolution on the claim.

13. If a claim under this Section is subject to a valid waiver of immunity which encompasses the claim and the claimant does not accept a decision allowing the claim or the claim is denied, the claimant may file a petition requesting judicial review of the decision in the Tribal Court. Judicial review of the decision shall proceed in accordance with the following:

a. The petition for judicial review shall be filed within thirty (30) days of the issuance of the decision and include all information required for filing a claim under this Section;

b. The Tribal Court shall dismiss the action if:

i. The claimant has not exhausted all administrative remedies under this Section;

ii. A written decision has not been made on the claim;

iii. The claimant does not have or produce a written contract properly approved and executed by the Tribe; or

iv. The claim is not subject to a valid waiver of immunity which encompasses the claim;

c. The Tribe shall be permitted to assert any counterclaim against the claimant, including any offset or deduction permitted against the claim, which shall be tried as a complaint under the Rules of Civil Procedure and not as a judicial review;

d. The judicial review shall be conducted in accordance with and subject to the standards in the Rules of Civil Procedure with the parties being permitted to make reasonable written and oral argument;

e. The Tribal Court may affirm, reverse, modify, or vacate and remand the decision, subject to the standard of judicial review permitted in the Rules of Civil Procedure, provided that the Tribal Court shall affirm the decision if the Tribal Court concludes the decision is reasonable;

f. The Tribal Court shall not have the authority or jurisdiction to award any damages or award any relief prohibited under laws of the Tribe, including this Chapter, or not expressly permitted in the contract subject of the claim or within the scope of the waiver of sovereign immunity encompassing the claim; and

g. The decision of the Tribal Court shall be a final order and subject to appeal in accordance with the laws of the Tribe governing civil appeals, but not subject to collateral attack in any other tribunal, regardless of the availability of any other dispute resolution provided for in the contract or agreement to dispute resolution in any foreign jurisdiction, court, or tribunal.

14. If a claimant does not accept a decision allowing a claim under this Section, in any judicial review or dispute resolution on the same occurrence or subject matter;

a. It shall be deemed a rejection of an offer of judgment under the Tribal Rules of Civil Procedure with the date of offer being the date the decision is provided to the claimant regardless of whether the decision was made or the rejection occurred prior to the filing of the dispute resolution; and

b. To the extent the Tribal Rules of Civil Procedure do not apply or the decision cannot be considered an offer of judgment thereunder, if the claimant does not obtain a more favorable judgment in the dispute resolution, the claimant shall be liable to the Tribe for the reasonable expert witness fees and double the costs and legal counsel's fees incurred by the Tribe after the decision was provided to the claimant and prejudgment interest to accrue from the date the decision was provided to the claimant, all of which shall be included in any judgment or award entered, including an order or judgment of dismissal.

15. Excluding the public court record and any final order or judgment in judicial review permitted under this Section, no recommendation, discussions, decision, offer, or rejection of a decision or offer shall be admissible in any proceeding except:

a. For purposes of judicial review of such recommendation, decision, or offer as permitted in this Section;

b. For purposes of considering the decision as an offer of judgment;

c. To determine whether an obtained judgment is more favorable than a rejected offer in accordance with this Section;

d. To determine whether the proceeding is subject to stay, subject to dismissal, or barred under this Section; or

e. By the Tribe for any purpose related to defending a claim made against it.

16. If a claimant is unable to support any part of the claim and it is determined that the inability is attributable to a misrepresentation of fact or fraud by the claimant, then the claimant is liable to the Tribe for an amount equal to the unsupported part of the claim plus all of the Tribe's costs attributable to reviewing the unsupported part of the claim.

17. A decision under this Section on a submitted claim shall be made within a reasonable time, taking into account such factors as the size and complexity of the claim and the adequacy of information in support of the claim provided by the claimant.

18. Investigations, determinations, and recommendations of any legal counsel reviewing the claim, proceedings of the Tribal Council or governing board, and all information and records related to any of the foregoing involving any claim filed under this Section shall be privileged and not subject to disclosure or discovery or asked about in any testimony, provided that nothing in this Section shall prevent the Tribe from utilizing any such information or records as necessary in defense of or response to any dispute resolution.

19. Recommendations, determinations, and final decisions under this Section have no value as precedent for future claims under this Section or for any dispute resolution.

20. Any amounts paid to a claimant under this Section may be offset by amounts which may be due the Tribe from the claimant as allowed under the laws of the Tribe, provided such offset amounts are identified to the claimant.

21. The acceptance of a decision under this Section or the payment of any claim made under this Section and acceptance thereof by the claimant shall constitute a complete bar to any dispute resolution or action of any kind by the claimant against the Tribe, by reason of the same occurrence or subject matter, and shall require dismissal with prejudice of any dispute resolution or action of any kind commenced prior to or subsequent to such payment and acceptance.

22. Any dispute resolution regarding, under, or related in any manner to a contract with the Tribe where a claim has not been filed and decided under this Section shall be dismissed without prejudice, provided that if it cannot be so dismissed and a claim has been filed but not decided, the proceedings shall be stayed for at least thirty (30) days to permit the claim to be decided under this Section and for such additional periods of time as the parties may agree or as may be necessary to make a decision under this Section if the Tribe can demonstrate due diligence in processing the claim or good cause for any delay.

23. The remedy and procedures provided in this Section are exclusive of any other dispute resolution against the Tribe regarding, under, or related in any manner to a contract, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in such contract or any law of any jurisdiction, except that if a contract with the Tribe specifies another dispute resolution or procedure for disputes or enforcement actions relating to the contract, including a waiver of immunity, the following rules apply:

a. Negotiation or mediation provided for in the contract may be sought either before or after the filing of a claim under this Section unless the contract provides otherwise, provided the resolution of the claim pursuant to any negotiation or mediation may be made an accepted decision under this Section;

b. The filing of a claim under this Section shall be a condition precedent to the filing of, or any proceedings on, any dispute resolution in any jurisdiction, court, or tribunal, including in arbitration, and no filing or proceedings on any dispute resolution may be had unless and until a claim has been filed and decided under this Section and the procedures under this Section exhausted;

c. The filing of a claim under this Section shall be a condition precedent to the effectiveness of any waiver of immunity and no waiver of immunity is valid, effective, or may be claimed unless and until a claim has been filed and decided under this Section and the procedures under this Section exhausted; and

d. The timely filing of a proper claim under this Section shall toll any statute of limitations applicable to the claim for purposes of any dispute resolution.

24. Nothing in this Section limits or prevents the Tribe and the claimant from entering into a settlement agreement or otherwise resolving a claim subject to this Section while such claim is pending under this Section.

25. The provisions of this Section shall not apply to:

a. Employment with the Tribe; or

b. Claims or reviews of claims where applicable law provides another remedy or procedure for the particular claim.

26. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section, if the Tribe finds it would be in the public interest, the Tribe may expressly agree in a contract with a government of a foreign jurisdiction, or agency or subdivision thereof, that this Section will not apply to claims under the contract by the government of the foreign jurisdiction or may except a government, agency, or subdivision of a foreign jurisdiction from the operation of this Section.

27. Except for judicial review conducted in strict compliance with the provisions of this Section, nothing in this Section shall give rise to any appeal, review, challenge, dispute resolution, or other action in any court or tribunal, including the Tribal Court, related to a contract and no court or tribunal, including the Tribal Court, shall have any subject matter jurisdiction over any dispute or dispute resolution by reason of the existence or operation of this Section. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as limiting, waiving, or abrogating the sovereignty or the sovereign immunity of the Tribe.

28. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract and any law of any jurisdiction and no provision of a contract which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid. Any term, clause, condition, or provision of a contract with the Tribe which is contrary to, violates, conflicts with, or purports to alter or waive any of the provisions of this Section is against public policy and shall be void and unenforceable, except that the contract containing that term, clause, condition, or provision shall otherwise be enforceable as if it did not contain such term, clause, condition, or provision.

CHAPTER 9 LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS

Section 1-9-1. Accrual of Action. For purposes of this Chapter, a cause of action accrues when the damaged or injured party knows or reasonably should know the person has been damaged or injured and knows or reasonably should know the cause, source, act, event, instrumentality, or condition which caused or contributed to the alleged damage or injury.

Section 1-9-2. Contracts and Agreements. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Code:

1. An action upon a written contract or other written agreement must be commenced within six (6) years after the cause of action accrues and not afterward; and

2. An action upon an oral contract or other oral agreement must be commenced within three (3) years after the cause of action accrues and not afterward.

Section 1-9-3. Injury and Torts. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Code, an action for injury to a person or property or for other tortious conduct must be commenced within two (2) years after the cause of action accrues and not afterward.

Section 1-9-4. General Limitation. Any action for which no limitation is otherwise prescribed in the laws of the Tribe must be commenced within three (3) years after the cause of action accrues and not afterward.

Section 1-9-5. Actions Involving the Tribe.

1. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this Code:

a. Any action against the Tribe derivative of lease of Tribal land must be commenced within six (6) years of the date the cause of action accrues and not afterward;

b. Any action against the Tribe alleging intentional injury to a person or property or other intentional tortious conduct must be commenced within one (1) year of the date the cause of action accrues and not afterward;

c. Any other action against the Tribe must be commenced within one (1) year of the date the cause of action accrues and not afterward;

d. Any action against a Tribal official arising from the performance of the Tribal official's official duties must be commenced within one (1) year of the date the cause of action accrues and not afterward; and

e. Any action against a Tribal official not arising from the performance of the Tribal official's official duties must be commenced within two (2) years of the date the cause of action accrues and not afterward.

2. No possession by any person, no matter how long continued, of any land, water, water right, easement, or other property whatsoever, real or personal, dedicated to, owned by, or held in trust for the Tribe shall ever ripen into any title, interest, or right against the Tribe.

3. The Tribe shall not be barred by the limitations of actions prescribed in this Chapter or any other time limitation under the laws of the Tribe or any other applicable law, except where such time limitation is made expressly applicable to the Tribe.

4. None of the limitations of action in this Chapter, including this Section, shall be construed as a waiver of the Tribe's sovereign immunity.

5. Except for a period of limitations for an action against the Tribe which is shorter or more restrictive than the periods provided for in this Section:

a. The periods of limitations in this Section apply to actions involving the Tribe regardless of where the action arises or is brought, including a foreign jurisdiction;

b. No period of limitations for an action against the Tribe may be waived in advance or prior to the commencement of an action;

c. Any waiver of a period of limitations for an action against the Tribe may only be waived by resolution of the Tribal Council; and

d. The provisions of this Section shall supersede any contrary provision of any contract, agreement, document, or instrument and any law of any foreign jurisdiction and no provision of a contract, agreement, document, or instrument which purports to exempt or avoid the provisions of this Section shall be valid.

Section 1-9-6. Foreign Judgments and Actions.

1. No action which arises in a foreign jurisdiction shall be maintained against a person if such action is barred by the law of limitations of such foreign jurisdiction.

2. An action upon a judgment or order rendered in a foreign jurisdiction shall be barred if by the laws of such foreign jurisdiction such action would be barred there and the judgment or decree is incapable of being otherwise enforced there.

Section 1-9-7. Tolling of Limitations.

1. For purposes of the time limitations in this Chapter, any cause of action based on fraud or mistake shall not be deemed to have accrued until the aggrieved party has discovered the facts constituting the fraud or mistake.

2. If a person entitled to bring an action is at the time the cause of action accrues either a minor or incapacitated, the period of such time of minority or incapacity shall not be deemed a portion of the period limited for commencement of the action. Such person shall have the same time after removal of the minority or incapacity which is allowed to others.

3. If a person entitled to bring an action is at the time the cause of action accrues incarcerated, the period of such incarceration shall exist only until such time as the person incarcerated discovers the right to bring the action or with the exercise of reasonable diligence should have discovered the right to bring the action, whichever occurs first, and such person shall have the same time after the incarceration ceases which is allowed all others.

4. When a person against whom there is a cause of action is absent from the territory of the Tribe at the time the cause of action accrues or at any time during which the action might have been maintained, such action may be brought against such person after the person's return to the territory of the Tribe. The time of such person's absence shall not be counted or taken as a part of the time limited by the provisions of this Section or any other time limitation under the laws of the Tribe.

5. Except where otherwise provided in the laws of the Tribe, if an action is timely commenced within the period of limitations prescribed for the action and the action is terminated in any manner other than by abatement, voluntary dismissal, dismissal for lack of prosecution, or a final judgment on the merits, the plaintiff, or a successor or personal representative, may bring a new action for the same cause of action within six (6) months after the expiration of the time so limited. The provisions of this subsection apply to judgments on appeal as well as counterclaims, cross-claims, and defenses of the defendant.

6. The period of limitation shall not be extended by the connection of one basis of tolling or disability to another. When the law of limitation begins to run, it shall continue to run notwithstanding a supervening disability of the party entitled to sue or liable to be sued.

Section 1-9-8. Recognition of Foreign Court Orders/Judgments.

1. Except where otherwise provided in this Code, the Tribe shall recognize and enforce valid judgments and orders of a foreign court if:

a. The foreign court does not refuse to recognize and enforce judgments and orders of the Tribal Court;

b. The foreign court had personal and subject matter jurisdiction to issue the judgment or order;

c. The judgment or order does not conflict with another final judgment or order that is entitled to recognition or enforcement;

d. The person against whom the judgment or order is to be enforced was afforded fair process, including fair notice and a fair hearing;

e. The judgment or order was obtained under a system likely to secure an impartial administration of justice;

f. There is nothing to show either prejudice in the foreign court or in the system of laws under which it was sitting;

g. The judgment or order was not obtained by fraud; and

h. The judgment or order is not contrary to public policy of the Tribe.

2. Where another standard of recognition and enforcement applies to the recognition and enforcement of a particular judgment or order of a foreign court in this Code, that standard shall be applied and govern the recognition and enforcement of that order or judgment.

3. Nothing in this Section shall prevent the Tribal Council, by duly adopted resolution of the Tribal Council, from making the foregoing provisions not applicable to any transaction, contract, agreement, instrument, or other matter specified in such resolution.

CHAPTER 10 CONDUCT ON TRIBAL PROPERTY

Section 1-10-1. Purpose. The purpose of this Chapter is to ensure the safety of members of the Tribe and all others on all premises of the Tribe by protecting the public from inappropriate behavior and categorically excluding the possession of weapons of any kind on all premises of the Tribe.

Section 1-10-2. Definitions. In addition to the definitions set forth in Chapter 1 of this Title, unless the context requires otherwise, as used in this Chapter:
